To "call an audible" is when you are on a
date, or trying to pick someone up at a bar
and the other party is not interested in you.

The uninterested party will then "call an audible" on you by working in an interjection / rejection into their dialog in order to possibly soften the blow of rejection. This will allow them to state their judgement on you, or their actual position without them outright explaining to you that you need to back off.

Sometimes you just need to call an audible. Let's be clear - usually your training is going to be correct. But, sometimes, you will need to remember that selling is both science and art...and the art part means you might need to listen to your heart and occasionally let that heart override your mind.
