But as Charles Stanley 1985 states, "This abandonment is at our great peril, because meditation and its scriptural application are of immense value if we are to listen accurately to God" (p. 93). Cho 1984 reports, "The way to hear God's voice is to get still and meditate.

Meditation Where God Talks To You and You Talk to God ...

It differs from prayer in that we are not precisely talking to God but rather, reflecting on Him. And although it often involves scripture, it is not the same thing as study. One could say that meditation is to the Word of God what digestion is to food. Food is of little use if we fail to digest it well.
