RESTORE PAPER

The conservation and restoration of books, manuscripts, documents and ephemera is an activity dedicated to the preservation and protection of items of historical and personal value made primarily from paper, parchment, and leather. When applied to cultural heritage, conservation activities are generally undertaken by a conservator. The primary goal of conservation is to preserve the lifespan of the object as well as maintaining its integrity by keeping all additions reversible.

Paper restoration and conservation is an area of expertise at Restoration By Heart. Although other restorers often immerse paper in chemicals and then place the paper under heavy weight, we take a much more gentle approach. No paper is ever immersed in chemicals or put under heavy weight. We block out unaffected areas and protect the images carefully, and then we brush the treatment chemicals on with artist brushes and airbrushes.
