The Church's first great revival occurred when 3,000 Jews came to Christ on the day of Pentecost, likely on May 24, A.D. 33. That awesome beginning was a foretaste of what would happen time after time throughout history. By the year 300 approximately 14 million called themselves Christian, and by 500 the number neared 40 million.

Five Key Revivals - Decision Magazine

Excellent points, Marcia. I think another factor is the brain's drive to efficiency - wanting to reduce potentially complex decisions to their simplest form (like yes or no) to enable a quick decision and action. With survival at stake, and with fewer complex decisions to make each day, this efficiency process was effective in the savannah.
